LOVE DEFRAUDS NOT :- Owe no man any thing, but to love one another. Thou shalt not steal. Theu shalt not covet. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself .- Romans 13:8, 9.

"WINE, WOMEN AND SONG."

Why is it that so many men, after becoming rich, leave the paths of rectitude and trod the primrose path of dalliance? It has been the case since Lot went down to dwell in the fertile plains that sudden riches often means riotous living.

Oklahoma affords better examples of this than almost any other state. Our great oil fields have made millionaires out of paupers and financial kings out of hard working farm or city boys. Many of these have been able to hold themselves down, but others have sought ways in which to spend the quickly gotten wealth and have found their greatest outlet vival services at the First Metho- sion of his services here next Sunin "wine, women and song."

LENGTH OF SERVICE.

Oklahoma City is starting its annual school row. From the time we first came to Oklahoma, the largest city has almost every year engaged in a fight over the superintendency or some of his rulings. The result has been that, while spending money freely, the capital city has not built a school system as good as that in many of the smaller places.

We believe we express the universal opinion of school men when we say that Ada has a far superior system of schools when compared with Oklahoma City. Our good fortune has been due to the freedom of factionalism in the schools and continuity of service on the part of the superintendents. Only two men have headed the schools since 1909, and one of these is still in that position. It is an axiom of educational experts that one man with a vision can build a system of schools much more effectively than several can do. Where one superintendent starts out on a definite program and another comes in another year and changes that program, chaos will likely result.

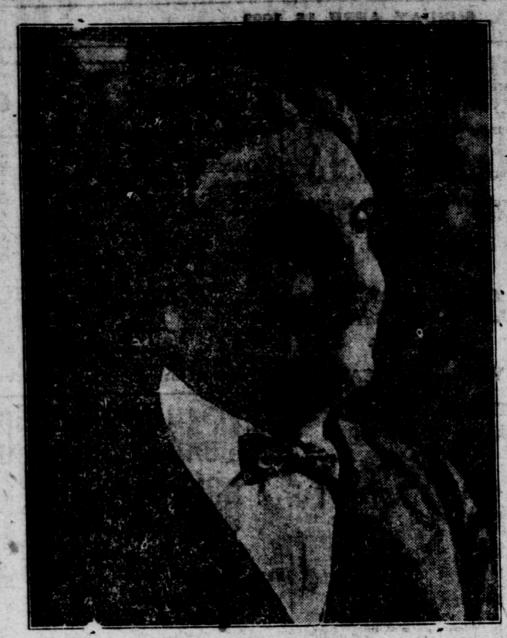

Oklahoma City has been changing and changing and changing. With possibly one or two exceptions, all the superintendents have been able and conscientious school men. To our certain knowledge, almost any one, if let alone, would have placed Oklahoma City at the top of the educational world. Instead of that, look at the results. Prof. Parsons, let alone, will build the system where it ought to be, but unless the city's record changes, he will not serve more than three or four years. It is to be hoped that Ada never has to go through with what other cities have gone through with, for to do so would be to undo much that has already been done.

When a paper or individual insists day in and day out that everything some official or person does is either exactly right or else altogether wrong, the public forms a faint suspicion that somebody is rather narrow between the eyes and his judgment not to be implicitly relied upon.

It is said the income from oil in the Tonkawa field is more than a million dollars a week. Pontotoc will make that look small some of these days.

The Washword of a Nation

Over 750,000 housewives in the United States do their weekly wash with the THOR electric washing machine. Millions of dollars are thus saved and millions of hours of time that the old tub method requires can be turned to other useful and pleasant tasks.

Over 50 Ada housewives are enjoying the THOR method. We can tell you who they are and they can tell you the pleasures of using a THOR.

The cost of using a THOR is only 2c per hour; the average family wash can be done the THOR way in an hour and a half. The cost of water, soap and the other necessities of the wash is practically nothing-can you think of a more economical wash day?

The old tub method requires hard work and oftimes produces results that are not satisfactory. The THOR way does the work ELEC-TRICALLY-just push the button and while the clothes are being washed, the time can be used for the other household tasks.

Call us up and let us demonstrate a THOR by doing the family wash for you this week

Seek Building of Character in Teaching of Citizenship.

(By the Associated Press) WASHINGTON, April .- The recent action of the American Bar Association in promoting an active campaign for a law to compel the teaching of citizenship in the public schools of the land has received wide-spread comment. There might even seem to be an implication that educators have not been looking after this very important phase of school work, but such is not the case, declares the Character

Education Association, of this city. Research on the problems of education for citizenship has been carried on by educators for several years, and at the forthcoming World Conference on Education, to be held in San Francisco next June when delegates from all, parts of the world will meet, this subject will be discussed, it was said.

"There is, however," declares the association's statement, "a larger movement going forward than merely the teaching of citizenship. This is "character education," which has as its fundamental purpose the cultivation of the disposition and purpose to act right as citizens, and not merely or chiefly a knowledge of the constitution and the principles of government. Statistics show that half the notorious criminals and citizenship perverts of the nation are well informed regarding the United States constitution and the laws of the states These people take advantage of their legal knowledge to contrive ways and means of breaking the laws of the land without subjecting themselves to the danger of suffering the penalties of their crimes.

"The educators of America realize that character forming should be one of the principal aims of our schools. Inculcate in the child the will to do right and act right. and he will grow up to be a worthy citizen. Ignore the moral side and there is always the possibility that the more knowledge a person receives .whether it be in citizenwill he turn out to be eventually if the will to wrong doing is present.
